The 5th Sustainable Development Goal (SDG5) aims at eliminating all forms of gender-based discrimination and violence everywhere in the world by 2030

Raising Awareness & FORTH Website

Efforts aiming at:

- generating and stimulating sensitivity to issues related to gender (in)equality
- strengthening people's knowledge and skills to engage with gender equality issues
- raising awareness about the role of women in science.
- facilitating open and constructive communication, and raising awareness of the subtle ways of giving and taking away voice, power and visibility.
- providing information for the prevention of sexual coercion and domestic abuse in research/university settings
